4) Other Legitimate Interests

In accordance with the applicable laws, regulations and national standards, in order to pursue public interests and other legitimate interests, we may collect and use your personal information without obtaining your consent under the following circumstances:

- (1) It is necessary in order to perform a statutory duty or legal obligation;
- (2) It is necessary in order to respond to an unexpected public health incident or, in an emergency, to protect the lives, health or property of natural persons;
- (3) It is done in the public interest for purposes such as providing news reports and monitoring public opinion, and the extent of the processing is reasonable;
- (4) The personal information has been made public by you or has otherwise been lawfully made public, and we will conduct reasonable processing of your personal information to the extent permissible under applicable laws and regulations; and
- (5) Other circumstances provided under laws and regulations.

For instance, we may collect and use your personal information to activate the mechanisms necessary to prevent and detect unauthorised uses of the Platform (for example, during the purchase and returns process) as well as potential fraud being committed against you and/or against us. If we consider that the transaction may be fraudulent or we detect abnormal behaviour which indicates attempted fraudulent use of our features, products or services, this processing may result in consequences such as the blocking of the transaction or the deletion of your user account. We understand that the processing of these data is positive for all the parties involved: for you, as it allows us to put in place measures to protect you against attempted fraud perpetrated by third parties; for us, as it allows us to avoid unauthorised uses of the Platform; for all our customers and society, as it also protects their interest by ensuring that fraudulent activities are discouraged and detected when they do occur.

3. HOW LONG WILL WE KEEP YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION AND WHERE?

The time for which we will keep your personal information will depend on the purposes for which we process them, as explained below:

Purpose	Time for which the data are kept
1. To manage your Platform user registration	We will process your personal information for the time during which you remain a registered user (meaning, until you decide to delete the account).
2. Development, performance and execution of the purchase or services contract	We will process your personal information for the time necessary to manage the purchase of the products or services that you buy, including potential returns, complaints or claims related to the purchase of the product or service in question. Sometimes, we will only process the data until the time when you decide, as is the case of payment data that you requested us to store for future purchases (where this feature is available).
3. Customer Support	We will process your personal information for the time necessary to meet your request or application.
4. Marketing	We will process your personal information until you unsubscribe or cancel your subscription to the newsletter. Likewise, we will show you ads until you change your device, browser and/or cookies settings so that permission to do so is revoked. If you participate in promotional actions, we will keep the data during a six (6) months period from the end of the action.
5. Personalized content recommendations	We will process your personal information for the time during which you keep turning on the functionality of personalized content recommendations as a registered user (meaning, until you decide to delete the account).
6. Analysis of usability and quality	We will process your personal information occasionally for the time during which we proceed to carry out a specific quality action or survey or until we anonymise your browsing data.

Notwithstanding the fact that we will process your personal information for the time strictly necessary to achieve the purpose in question, we will subsequently keep them duly stored and protected for the time during which liability may arise for their processing, in compliance with applicable laws and regulations. Once each of the potential actions is time-barred we will proceed to delete or anonymize the personal information.

Our Platform is located within People's Republic of China and the personal information you provide through the Platform is stored on servers located in the People's Republic of China.

4. HOW WE ENTRUST THE PROCESSING, SHARING, TRANSFER AND PUBLIC DISCLOSURE OF YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

To achieve the purposes mentioned in this Privacy and Cookies Policy, we must give access to your personal data to entities of the Inditex Group and to third parties that provide us with support as entrusted processors in the services that we offer you.

1) Entrustment of processing

- (2) In accordance with the laws and regulations or mandatory administrative or judicial requirements;
- (3) In the case of asset transfer, acquisitions, mergers, reorganization or liquidation, if the transfer of personal information is involved, we will inform you of the situation and require new companies and organizations holding your personal information to continue to be bound by this Privacy and Cookies Policy. If the purpose of the collection and use of your personal information is changed, we will require the new company and organization to regain your explicit consent.

4) Public Disclosure

In principle we will not disclose your personal information publicly. In the event of public disclosure, we will inform you of the purpose and type of the disclosure, and the sensitive personal information that may be involved and seek your explicit consent prior to such disclosure.

5) In accordance with the applicable laws, regulations, and national standards, we may share, transfer, or publicly disclose your personal data without obtaining your consent in the following cases:

- (1) Directly related to national security and defence security;
- (2) Directly related to public safety, public health and major public interests;
- (3) Directly related to criminal investigation, prosecution, trial and execution of judgments;
- (4) For the maintenance of your or other people's life, property and other important legitimate rights and interests, but it is difficult to get your own consent;
- (5) The personal data collected is disclosed to the public by yourself;
- (6) The personal data is collected from lawful and publicly disclosed information, such as: legal news reports, government information disclosure and other channels.

5. WHAT ARE YOUR RIGHTS WHEN MAKING YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION AVAILABLE TO US?

We undertake to keep your personal information confidential and to ensure that you may exercise your rights. Bearing that in mind, We have agreed that you may exercise your rights free of charge by writing us an e-mail to a single e-mail address (dataprotection@zara.com), simply informing us of the reason for your request and the right that you wish to exercise. If we consider this necessary to be able to identify you, we may request you to provide a copy of a document evidencing your identity, and will respond to your requests within fifteen (15) working days.

In addition, we may offer you with the possibility to exercise your rights and setting your privacy preferences when using some of our services, or by making available specific channels within our Platform.

In particular, notwithstanding the purpose or legal basis we use to process your personal information, you have the following rights:

- To request access to your personal information that we hold. We remind you that where you are a Platform registered user you may also consult this information in the relevant section of your online account.

- To request that we rectify the personal information that we hold. Please bear in mind that if you are a registered user on the Platform, you may also access the relevant personal information section of your online account to change or update your personal information. In any case, please take into account that, on actively making your personal information available to us through any procedure, you guarantee that they are true and accurate, and you undertake to notify to us any change or modification of your personal information. You will be liable for any loss or damage caused to the Platform or to the person responsible for the Platform or to any third party by reporting erroneous, inaccurate or incomplete information in the registration forms. Please remember that, as a general rule, you must provide us only with your own data, not with those of third parties, other than to the extent otherwise permitted in this Privacy Policy.
- To request that we delete your personal information to the extent that they are no longer necessary for the purpose for which we need to keep processing them, as we have explained above, or when we are no longer legally permitted to process them.
- To request us to limit the processing of your personal information, implying that in certain cases you may request us to suspend provisionally the processing of the personal information or to keep them longer than the time necessary when you may need this.
- To request us to withdraw the consent of your personal information processing activities. However, we may not be able to respond to your requests for information, which is necessary to realize the basic functions of our products and services or is necessary for us to perform our obligations under applicable laws and regulations. Except for such scenarios that we are unable to respond, when you withdraw your consent or authorization, we will no longer process the corresponding personal information. Please notice, your decision to withdraw your consent or authorization will not affect our previous personal information processing activities based on your consent or authorization.
- To request that we cancel your account, as a consequence of which, we will cease the offering of the goods or services to you and delete or anonymize your personal information according to applicable laws and regulations. You can cancel your account through the following methods:
 - (1) Self-cancellation: through Zara website, App or WeChat Mini Program, “ACCOUNT – CANCEL ACCOUNT” to complete the cancellation
 - (2) Contact us: dataprotection@zara.com
- To request that we transmit the personal information you have provided to us in a commonly used and machine-readable format to another PIP subject to technical feasibility.

Should you not wish us to send information to third parties to show you ads, you can do it through several means such as changing your preferences on your device changing your preferences on your device, browser and/or cookies settings, reviewing the privacy policies and settings of the social media sites on which you have profiles or sending us an email to the above mentioned email address informing us of your request.

6. HOW DO WE PROTECT YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

We are committed to protecting the security of your personal information. We use a variety of security technologies and procedures to help protect your personal information from unauthorized access, use or disclosure. For example, we store the personal information you provide on computer systems that have limited access and are in controlled facilities. When we transmit highly confidential data (such as card number or password) over the Internet, we protect it through the use of encryption.

In the event of a personal information security incident, we will promptly inform you, as required by applicable laws and regulations, of the basic situation and possible impacts of the security incident, the measures that we have taken or will take, the suggestions you may be able to prevent and mitigate the risks, and the remedies for your actions. We will timely inform you of the event through email, SMS and other channels. If it is difficult to inform the personal information subject individually, we will take a reasonable and effective way to publish the announcement. At the same time, we will take the initiative to report the disposal of information security incidents according to the requirements of local authorities.

Please take good care of your login account and password. When you use our service, we will identify you through your login account and password. Once you have disclosed the foregoing information, you may suffer loss and may have legal consequences that are unfavourable to you. If you find that your login account and/or password may or have been compromised, please contact us immediately so that we can take appropriate measures to avoid or reduce the related loss.

We have established a public user management mechanism, including the tracking procedure. If you have any questions, opinions, suggestions, or complaints on this Privacy and Cookies Policy, you may contact us through the postal addresses listed in the Article 1 of this Privacy and Cookies Policy. We also set up a full-time personal information protection department (or personal information protection officer) and you may contact by emailing to dataprotection@zara.com. For security purpose, we may require you to submit written application or use other methods to prove your identity. In general, after the validation of your identity, we will reply to your request within fifteen (15) working days or within the time limit stipulated in the laws and regulations.

If you are not satisfied with our reply, especially our processing of your personal information infringes your rights and interests, you may complain or report to relevant regulatory authorities, or bring a lawsuit before the competent court.

In principle, we won't charge you for your reasonable request. However, we will charge a certain amount of cost for repeated requests that exceed a reasonable limit. We may reject those requests that are duplicative, require excessive technical means (for example, developing new systems or fundamentally changing current practices), pose risks to the legitimate rights and interests of others, or are very unrealistic.

Notwithstanding the above agreement, we may not be able to respond your request in the following cases in accordance with the applicable laws, regulations and national standards:

- (1) Directly related to national security and defence security;
- (2) Directly related to public safety, public health and major public interests;
- (3) Directly related to criminal investigation, prosecution, trial and enforcement of sentences;
- (4) There is sufficient evidence that you may maliciously abuse your rights;
- (5) Responding to your request will cause serious damage to the lawful rights and interests of other individuals and organizations;
- (6) Involving business secrets.

7. WHAT HAPPENS WHEN YOU PROVIDE US WITH DATA OF THIRD PARTIES OR IF A THIRD PARTY HAS PROVIDED US WITH YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

We offer functionalities or services that require us to process the personal information of a third party that you, as a user or as a customer, must provide us with, such as in the case of activation and sending of the Gift Card or the management of the application for the Gift Voucher (where these features are available), or when you authorise a third party to collect an order in our stores or partner establishments. If you provide us with personal information of third parties or if it is necessary that we request them for a third party to collect an order in your name, you confirm that you informed them of the purposes and of the manner in which we need to process their personal information, and that you have obtained their relevant express consent.

If a third party has provided us with your personal information or you have provided them yourself as a result of a feature or service requested by one of our users, we will use them to manage the feature or service in question in each case, within the limits of the purposes listed in this Privacy and Cookies Policy, a link to which is always included in our communications.

8. HOW DO WE PROCESS CHILDREN'S PERSONAL INFORMATION?

Our products, websites and services are mainly adults oriented. A child shall not create his or her own user account without the consent of his or her parents or guardians.

Although the laws in different countries or regions have different definitions for children, we treat anyone under the age of 14 as a child. However, since the birthday is not the necessary information for us to provide basic services or functions, in some cases, we cannot identify the user's age. Therefore, we ask children under the age of 14 NOT to provide us with your names, contact addresses, mobile phone numbers and/or other personal information by yourselves. If we find ourselves collecting the child's personal information without prior consent of the parents or guardians, or if we have evidence to prove that you have violated the above agreement, we have the right to stop providing services to you, and we will try to delete the relevant data as soon as possible.

In cases where a child's personal information is collected with the consent of the parent or guardian, we will only use or disclose this information in a case where the law allows, the explicit consent of the parents or guardians has been obtained, or it is necessary to protect the children.

9. CHANGES TO THE PRIVACY AND COOKIES POLICY

We may amend the information contained in this Privacy and Cookies Policy when we consider this appropriate. Should we do so, we will notify you by various procedures through the Platform (for example, through a banner, a pop-up or a push notification), or we may even send you a notice to your e-mail address when the change in question is relevant to your privacy, for you to be able to review the changes, assess them and, as the case may be, object or unsubscribe from any service or functionality. If major and substantive changes are involved, we will notify you in a significant way according to the specific situation. Major and substantial changes include but are not limited to:

- 1) Significant changes have taken place in our service model. Such as the purpose of processing personal information, the type of personal information processed, the use of personal information, etc;
- 2) Significant changes have taken place in our ownership structure and organizational structure. Such as the owner change caused by business adjustment, bankruptcy and Merger & Acquisition;

- 3) The main objects of personal information sharing, transfer or public disclosure have changed;
- 4) Your rights of personal information processing activities have changed significantly;
- 5) When the responsible department of personal information protection, contact information and complaint channels change;
- 6) When the Personal Information Protection Impact Assessment (PIA) report indicates that there is a high risk.

In any case, we suggest you review this Privacy and Cookies Policy from time to time in case minor changes are made or we make any interactive improvement, taking the opportunity that you will always find it as a permanent point of information on our Website, our App, and our WeChat Mini Program.

10. INFORMATION ON COOKIES

We use cookies and similar devices to facilitate your browsing in the Platform, understand how you interact with us and, in certain cases, to be able to show you advertisements in accordance with your browsing habits. Please read our Cookies Policy to understand with greater detail the cookies and similar devices that we use, their purpose, how to manage your preferences, as well as other information of interest.

COOKIES POLICY

BEFORE YOU START...

In this Cookies Policy you will find information on how we use cookies and similar devices installed on the terminals of our customers and users. The use of cookies may sometimes be related to personal information processing, therefore we recommend you consult our Privacy Policy, available on our Platform, if you would like information on how we use the personal information of our customers and users, how to exercise your rights, or the terminology we use to refer to our Platform (Website, App or Physical Stores).

INFORMATION ABOUT COOKIES

What is a Cookie?

A cookie is a small text file that a website, app or other platform stores on your computer, tablet, smartphone or any other similar device, with information on your browsing and use, like a tag that identifies your device. Cookies are necessary, for example, to facilitate browsing and understand how users interact with platforms so they can be improved. They are also useful to provide advertising according to user preferences, as well as for other purposes detailed below. Cookies do not damage your computer or device.

By “Cookies” we are also referring to other, similar technologies used to install and/or collect information on or from your device such as flash cookies, web beacons or bugs, pixels, HTML5 (local storage), and SDK technologies for apps. The term Cookies also applies to the use of fingerprinting, in other words, techniques used to combine information that help us identify your device. These technologies sometimes run alongside cookies to collect and store information, either to provide you with certain features or services on our Platform, or to display third-party advertising according to your browsing.

This explanation is a general overview of what Cookies means and is for informational purposes only. The specific Cookies we use are detailed in the cookies settings panel on our Platform.

What type of Cookies are there?

Please check this section which provides an overview of the type of Cookies that can be used in an online environment.

Cookies can be classified as follows, depending on the owner:

- a. First-party cookies: Are sent to the user's computer or device from a computer or domain managed by the editor, and which provides the platform or service requested by the user.
- b. Third-party cookies: Are sent to the user's computer or device from a computer or domain not managed by the editor, but rather by another entity that processes data obtained from the cookies.

Cookies can be classified as follows, depending on the purpose:

- a. Strictly necessary cookies (technical): The cookies that allow the user to browse a website, platform or app, and use the various options or services on it. For example, control traffic, identify data or session, access restricted access sections or content, remember the elements of an order, complete an order purchase process, manage payment, control fraud related to service security, use security elements during browsing, complete an application to register or participate in an event, store content for publishing videos and audio, enable dynamic content (for example, loading animation of a text or image) and share content on social media. As they are strictly necessary, technical cookies are downloaded by default when they are needed to display the platform or provide the service requested by the user.

- b. Functionality or customisation cookies: These cookies are needed to remember information so that the user can access the service or platform with specific characteristics that can differentiate their experience from that of other users. For example, language, number of results displayed when the user runs a search, appearance or content of the service based on the type of browser used, or the region from where the service is accessed, etc. Not accepting cookies may cause slow website performance or poorly adapted recommendations.
- c. Analysis cookies: These cookies can quantify the number of users, sections visited on the platform and how users interact with it to carry out statistical measurement and analysis on use, in order to implement improvements based on the analysis of data on how users use the platform or service.
- d. Behavioural advertising cookies: Are those which store information on user behaviour obtained from continuous observation of their browsing habits, which allows us to develop a specific profile for displaying advertising adapted to these habits. These cookies allow for the most effective management possible of any advertising space the editor has included directly or in collaboration with third parties.

What are Cookies used for on our Platform?

Cookies are an essential part of our how Platform works. The main goal of our Cookies is to make your browsing experience as easy and efficient as possible. For example, they are used to remember your preferences (language, country, etc.) when browsing and during future visits. We also use our Cookies to continuously improve our services and Platform, and to offer customised advertising according to your browsing habits.

Information collected on Cookies also allows us to improve our Platform by making estimates on statistical data and patterns of use (number of visits, most visited sections, visit time, etc.), gain a statistical understanding of how users interact with the Platform so as to improve our services, and to adapt the Platform to your individual interests, accelerate searches, etc.

We may sometimes use Cookies to obtain information that enables us to display advertising, from our Platform, third-party platforms or any other means, based on an analysis of your browsing habits (products visited, sections consulted, etc.).

In any case, the Cookies we use never store sensitive information such as passwords, credit or debit card details, etc.

How can I manage the use of Cookies on this Platform?

In the Cookies settings panel, available at all times on our Platform, you can find all the information on the Cookies used by this Platform, along with information on the purpose, duration and management (first or third-party) of each Cookie, so you can enable or disable the use of Cookies that are not strictly necessary for Platform functioning.

Alternatively, if you are browsing the Internet, you can disable the use of Cookies on your browser. Here is how to do this on the most popular browsers:

- Google Chrome
- Internet Explorer
- Mozilla Firefox
- Safari

You can prevent the use of Cookies at any time.

Please remember that both managing the Cookies settings panel and opting to reject Cookies is specific to each browser you are using. Therefore, if you configure Cookies one way on one device and want your option to apply equally to another device, you must enable the same option on the other device.

Additionally, regarding third-party Cookies used to provide advertising based on your interests, please note that certain third parties may be members of some of the following self-regulatory programmes for online behavioural advertising, with the relevant voluntary exclusion options:

- Network Advertising Initiative (NAI) - <http://www.networkadvertising.org/choices/>
- Google Analytics - <https://tools.google.com/dlpage/gaoptout>

Who uses the information stored on Cookies?

The information stored on our Platform Cookies is only used by us, except those identified in section 2 as “Third-party cookies”, which are used and managed by external entities to provide us services aimed at improving our services and the user experience when browsing on our Platform. More information in the Cookies settings panel available at all times on our Platform.

For more detailed information on how we process your personal information in collaboration with third parties and on data subject to international data transfers, please read our Privacy Policy available on our Platform, and the privacy policies/privacy settings of these third-party collaborators, available on their platforms.
